EXECUTIVE SEARCH & HEADHUNTING

Our search and headhunting activities are carried out in close collaboration with our HR team to ensure a strategic, thorough, and effective talent acquisition process. By combining deep market knowledge with HR expertise, we are able to identify, attract, and secure high-quality candidates who meet both the technical requirements of the role and the cultural values of the organization. The process begins with a detailed understanding of business needs, role specifications, and long-term workforce planning. Together with the HR team, we define the ideal candidate profile, key competencies, and success factors for each position. This alignment ensures that the search strategy is targeted, efficient, and fully aligned with organizational goal. Through proactive headhunting, market mapping, and direct outreach, we engage with passive and active candidates across relevant industries and functions. Our HR team supports the screening and evaluation process through structured interviews, competency-based assessments, and reference checks, ensuring a consistent and objective selection approach. Throughout the process, we maintain clear communication with stakeholders, provide regular progress updates, and ensure a positive candidate experience. By leveraging the combined strengths of search expertise and HR best practices, we deliver sustainable hiring solutions that contribute to long-term organizational success
